Legal Disclaimer

• VGK4U is a partner enablement platform operated by Lucky Enterprises that allows registered partners to source and facilitate deals across various product and service categories including electric vehicles, insurance, real estate, marketplace goods, and training services.

• Partner Platform Activation provides access to the digital platform tools, partner dashboard, onboarding resources, and deal sourcing system. Activation does not constitute an investment, deposit scheme, or guaranteed income program.

• Any income or commissions earned by partners depend solely on successful deal sourcing, confirmed transactions, and applicable commission configurations. The company does not guarantee earnings or returns.

• VGK Coupons represent internal activation tokens used within the VGK4U system to activate partner accounts. Coupons do not represent monetary instruments, securities, or financial investments.

• VGK Points are promotional utility credits issued within the platform ecosystem. They are non-cash, non-transferable, non-withdrawable and may only be used as discounts or benefits on eligible products and services available on the VGK4U platform.

• Activation fees are non-refundable once the partner account has been activated and access to the digital platform has been granted.
